

Privacy Policy

The use of Accesspointcybersecurity.com provided by Access Point Cybersecurity, LLC, is subject to the Terms of Use found on this website along with this Privacy Policy. Your privacy is of paramount importance to us. This Privacy Policy outlines the manner in which we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you access or utilize this website, accessible at accesspointcybersecurity.com. By accessing or using this website, you acknowledge and consent to the practices described herein.

Information We Collect

We may collect and process both personal and non-personal information, including but not limited to first name, last name, company email address, telephone number, company name, role or designation, anonymized Internet Protocol (IP) address, browser type, operating system, referring website, date and time of access, clickstream data, geolocation data (if applicable), and information related to website usage, such as visited sections and performed actions.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We employ cookies, web beacons, and analogous technologies to enhance user experience, analyze site usage, and improve our offerings. Users may manage their cookie preferences through their browser settings.

Use of Information

The information collected may be utilized for the purposes of operating, maintaining, and enhancing the functionality of the website, authenticating and authorizing user access based on role-specific permissions, communicating with users, including responses to inquiries, tailoring and personalizing user experience, monitoring and improving the Portal's performance and services, providing updates or notifications subject to user consent where applicable, and ensuring compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and contractual obligations.

Disclosure of Information

We may disclose user information under the following circumstances: (i) to third-party service providers who offer essential services such as payment processing, hosting, analytics, and technical support; (ii) to comply with applicable legal requirements, enforce our agreements, or protect our rights and the rights of others; and (iii) in the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our assets, wherein user information may be transferred as part of the transaction.

Data Security

We implement robust technical and organizational measures to safeguard user information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is entirely secure, and absolute security cannot be guaranteed.

User Rights

Subject to applicable laws, users may exercise rights concerning their personal information, including the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of their personal information; the right to opt out of receiving marketing communications; the right to restrict or object to specific processing activities; and the right to request data portability. To exercise these rights, users may contact us at sales@accesspointcybersecurity.com. We will respond in accordance with applicable legal timeframes.

Third-Party Links

The website may include links to external websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of such third-party websites. Users are encouraged to review the privacy policies of these websites before sharing any information.

Amendments to This Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to modify or update this Privacy Policy at any time. Any changes shall become effective upon posting the revised policy on this page, accompanied by an updated "Effective Date." Users are encouraged to review this policy periodically.
